

As a citizen who is interested in continuing to listen to different points of view to understand the issues, it is extremely important to me and the rest of the public that the FCC continue to limit the ownership on the number of stations, etc. that can be owned by a single organization. To eliminate this restriction may well be the biggest action to date by any government organization to make democracy non-functional.